

Zachary Mortimer son of Becky Boyack

I just wanted to give a big shout out to all who supported Zac's Eagle Scout Blood Drive last week! In either physical and/or moral support! We were humbled and grateful for your service and the Red Cross is 48 more blood units strong!! I had one worker comment to me about how it had been a "fun" blood drive and that people had been very nice. My mom was touched by the camaraderie she saw from our ward and how friendly people were to each other. And several people told Zac, "I'm doing this because it's you." I am still overwhelmed by the love and support shown to Zac, and I am so appreciative. Thank you all for your kindness. You are the best!! Becky
